

Looking for a great way of helping others?

Climb aboard and be a SHIP volunteer

SHIP, or State Health Insurance Program, helps people in our community when they have problems navigating Medicare and the health system on their own. SHIP volunteers provide free one-on-one counseling to help answer the questions about health insurance.

SHIP Volunteers are part of a team that provide important client-focused community service. Through training and support, SHIP Volunteers help ease the confusion of Medicare.

SHIP work is rewarding. It takes a special volunteer to help people understand Medicare.

Call SHIP at 256-830-0818 and find out how you would fit in the SHIP team. Whether you work as a counselor, administrator, or educator, you will be able to help others. Call today!
